

Library Services

E-Thesis Deposit Guide

To deposit you will need to have a PDF of the final approved version of your thesis to hand, and be ready to provide full descriptive details of the content. Ensure the format follows the instructions in the Academic Regulations for Research Degrees, (<https://www.ljmu.ac.uk/the-doctoral-academy/academic-regulations-for-research-degrees>) in particular your title page should include the following information:

- the full title of the thesis
- the full name of the author
- that the degree is awarded by the University
- the award for which the thesis is submitted in partial fulfilment of its requirements;
- the Collaborating Establishment(s), if any
- the month and year of submission

Specimen title page:

Specimen thesis title page THE ORIGINS OF THE FARMERS' CO-OPERATIVE IN WESSEX JOHN JAMES SMITH A thesis submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirements of Liverpool John Moores University for the degree of Master of Philosophy This research programme was carried out in collaboration with the Borchester Farmers' Club April 2006
--

Preparing your file for upload

- You should save the PDF version of your thesis using the following filename format:
year-name-degree.pdf (e.g. 2016brownphd.pdf or 2016brownmphil.pdf)

- For additional files such as appendices or programme code we recommend the following format:

year-name-degree-file subject-matter.pdf (e.g. 2016brownphdappendix.pdf)

- If you need to deposit two files - one complete version and one with third party copyright material edited out - you should give them different filenames using the following format:

Full (not for public view) version: year-name-degree-internal.pdf (e.g. 2016brownphdinternal.pdf)

Public version (third party copyright material removed): year-name-degree.pdf (e.g. 2016brownphd.pdf)

Depositing your thesis

You deposit your thesis through Symplectic. To do this follow the instructions below:

- Go to Symplectic (<https://symplectic.ljmu.ac.uk/default.html>), when you are on campus you will not need to login but if you are off campus you will need to login with your LJMU username@ljmu.ac.uk and password. (Problems logging in? See your help section below)
- Click on Menu then Publications
- Click on + Add a new publication then select Add a new thesis/dissertation from the drop down list
- The following page will ask you to search Symplectic Elements for your thesis, as it has not yet been published select Skip at this point.

Adding the details

- Provide as much descriptive information about your thesis as you can. Fields marked with an asterisk (*) are mandatory.
- Enter your name and that of your supervisor(s) surname first, in as full a form as possible. Click on +Add. Symplectic should find you in the system. If your supervisor(s) is from LJMU it should also find them. Ensure you click on Yes if this is correct. By doing this your supervisor will be informed that you have deposited your thesis.

1 Symplectic Elements user found for "Follett M". Is this the right person?

FOLLETT, Maria L (LJMU)

Yes No

- If your supervisor is not from LJMU please still enter their surname and initials in the appropriate boxes and click on +Add
- In the Contact Information box please add your current future postal address, your telephone number and a personal email address. These contact details should all be non-LJMU so we are able to contact you if necessary after you have completed your studies.
- Select Save at the bottom of the page.

Depositing your publication

- Select Deposit to LJMU Publications Repository
- Use the Choose File button to select the file(s) from your local PC. Please ensure that you have followed the file naming format laid out below.
- Select the appropriate file version (see File naming format below)
 - Select Published public version if you are depositing one version of your thesis and for the public version if submitting two (the version with 3rd party copyright material removed).
 - Use Submitted internal examination version if you are deposited two versions of your thesis for the full version that will be submitted for examination (without 3rd party copyright material removed).
 - Use Additional files for an additional files including copyright permissions received from publishers.
- When you have selected the file, click on Upload.
- Additional files can be added by selecting + Upload another file.
- By depositing your thesis you are agreeing to the LJMU Distribution & Archiving Licence. Please read this licence before selecting Deposit my publication.

N.B. it is advisable if possible to upload your thesis using an LJMU PC on campus. You may receive the following error when attempting to upload your thesis due to the file size:

If you experience problems uploading your thesis please contact LJMU E-Theses Service (LJMU_e-theses@ljmu.ac.uk) with a copy of the thesis or a link to where it can be downloaded and deposited on your behalf.

Approval and Resubmission

Your submission needs to be approved before it can be published in LJMU Research Online. Once it has been approved you will be advised by e-mail and your thesis will be made available for public view subject to any embargo that has been agreed. It will also be subsequently made available for download by registered users at the British Library's Electronic Theses Online Service (<http://ethos.bl.uk>).

Note: Your thesis cannot be approved until you have completed all the necessary paperwork. Please ensure you have filled out, signed and returned your E-Thesis Access Declaration and Deposit Agreement form to the Graduate School.

If amendments need to be made to your submission (e.g. textual changes may be required to ensure that the thesis complies with the research degree regulations) you will again be alerted by e-mail. You will be asked to make the necessary changes and to resubmit your thesis.

Help and Advice

If you need further help and advice with depositing your thesis, please email LJMU e-theses Service. (LJMU_e-theses@ljmu.ac.uk)